CANCER PREVENTION Workshop
Are you a Cancer Killer?

Millions are diagnosed with this deadly disease each year, but how much do we really know about cancer? Is it just genetic, or can it be prevented? Convention states that early detection is the key, but doesn’t that mean you’re already sick? And aren’t the standard treatments nearly as agonizing as the disease itself?

At this event, we will show you that cancer’s cause is actually its cure, as well as build the blueprint for the “Don’t Get It” plan that will transform you into a Cancer Killer.

Join us in the Assembly Hall on Saturday Oct. 19 from 12 PM - 3 PM for this blockbuster program. The class is Free, the Cancer Killers book is highly recommended and cost $20 for early registration or $25 after Oct. 14. Please bring people from the community you care about.

Sign up by calling 305-238-2310 or go to http://cancerkillerstl.eventbrite.com/

The Spiritual Exercises Of
St. Ignatius Of Loyola In Daily Life

Tenth Annual Retreat
Begins On October 16th in Hospitality C

A great opportunity to pray like Pope Francis: “Prayer for me is ...is the memory of which St. Ignatius speaks in the First Week of the Exercises in the encounter with the merciful Christ crucified. And I ask myself: ‘What have I done for Christ? What am I doing for Christ? What should I do for Christ?’ It is the memory of which Ignatius speaks in the ‘Contemplation for Experiencing Divine Love,’ when he asks us to recall the gifts we have received ” (America Magazine interview, September 30, 2013)

2.  If you will need transportation to the Bank United Center, please register at the Welcome Table.

October 1 began the first U.S. government shutdown in 17 years. Federal employees take unwanted days off—perhaps ultimately without pay. Partisan bickering tries to lay blame in a variety of places. People don’t agree. Everything stops. Shutdown.

Perhaps government has advantages in this “shutdown” process that other groups do not have. Even though everyone does not agree in a home, families do not shut down. Even though everyone does not see things the same way in the Church, the parish does not shut down. We at St. Louis have too much to do and too many people involved and too many ministries to fulfill to even think about shutting anything down!

Our Covenant School and CCD have a thousand children registered. Over 375 young people participate in Youth Ministry programs (we probably need a bigger building!). Our RCIA and bible classes bring together over one hundred adults on Monday evening. Even more come for the scripture classes on angels on Wednesday and Thursday. And that does not count the thousands who come to worship on the weekend and the many other ministries of prayer, religious formation, and charitable service that go on every day. No shutdown here!

This past week we had two liturgical feasts of the angels and archangels to remind us that God does not shut down either. In celebrating these angelic spirits, we celebrate God’s constant love, not just for all of us as a whole, but also for each of us individually. As St. Augustine reminded us: “God loves each of us as if there were only one of us to love.” And only God can love that way!

Because God keeps going, the Church keeps going. At World Youth Day in Brazil on July 28, 2013, Pope Francis encouraged not only young people but all of us: “Saint Paul says: ‘I have made myself a slave to all, that I might win the more’ (1 Corinthians 9:19). In order to proclaim Jesus, Paul made himself ‘a slave to all.’” Evangelizing means bearing personal witness to the love of God; it is overcoming our selfishness, it is serving by bending down to wash the feet of our brethren, as Jesus did. …Do not be afraid to be generous with Christ, to bear witness to his Gospel. … When God sends the prophet Jeremiah, he gives him the power to ‘pluck up and to break down, to destroy and to overthrow, to build and to plant’ (Jeremiah 1:10). It is the same for you. Bringing the Gospel is bringing God’s power to pluck up and break down evil and violence, to destroy and overthrow the barriers of selfishness, intolerance and hatred, so as to build a new world. Dear young friends, Jesus Christ is counting on you! The Church is counting on you! The Pope is counting on you!” No Shutdown here!

El 1ro de octubre comenzó el primer paro del gobierno de los Estados Unidos en 17 años. Los empleados federales tienen días libres no-solicitados y posiblemente sin paga. Las discrepancias partidistas tratan de culpar a alguien o algo. Las personas no están de acuerdo. Todo se paraliza. Paro.

Quizás el gobierno tiene ventajas en este proceso de “paro” que otros grupos no tienen. Aunque no todos estén de acuerdo en una casa, las familias no se van en “paro”. Aunque no todos estén de acuerdo o vean las cosas de la misma forma en la Iglesia, las parroquias no se van al “paro”. Aquí en St. Louis nosotros tenemos mucho que hacer y hay muchas personas envueltas y también muchos ministerios a los que responder para ni siquiera considerar un “paro”.

Nuestra Escuela Covenant y el CCD tienen unos mil niños inscritos. Más de 375 jóvenes están participando en el programa de Ministerio de Jóvenes (probablemente necesitemos en un edificio más grande). Nuestro RCIA y las clases de Biblia reúnen a más de cien adultos los lunes en la noche. Otros tantos se reúnen los miércoles y jueves para las clases de las Escrituras sobre los ángeles. Y eso sin contar los miles que asisten a las misas los fines de semana y muchos otros a los ministerios de oración, formación religiosa y servicios sociales que ocurren a diario. ¡Aquí no hay paro!

Esta pasada semana tuvimos dos liturgias sobre los ángeles y arcángeles que nos recuerdan que Dios tan poco tiene paros. Celebrando estos angelicales espíritus, celebramos el constante amor de Dios, no sólo para todos nosotros como un todo, sino también individualmente. San Agustín nos recuerda: “Dios nos ama a cada uno de nosotros como si fuéramos uno para amar”. Sólo Dios puede amar de esa manera.

Porque Dios continua, la Iglesia sigue adelante. Durante el Día Mundial de la Juventud, el 28 de julio de 2013 en Brasil, el Papa Francisco impulsó no sólo a los jóvenes sino a todos nosotros: “San Pablo dice: ‘Me hice esclavo de todos para ganar el mayor número posible’ (1 Corintios 9:19). Para proclamar a Jesús, Pablo se hizo ‘esclavo de todos’. Evangelizar significa ser un testigo presencial del amor de Dios; es sobreponerse al egoísmo, es servir al doblarse para lavar los pies de nuestros hermanos, como hizo Jesús. …No tengan miedo de ser generosos con Cristo, dar testimonio de su Evangelio,... Cuando Dios envió al profeta Jeremías, él le dio el poder para arrancar y arrojar, destruir y demoler, edificar y plantar’ (Jeremías 1:10). Es lo mismo para ustedes. Llevar el Evangelio es llevar el poder de Dios para arrancar y arrojar con el demonio y la violencia, destruir y demoler las barreras del egoísmo, la intolerancia y el odio, para construir un nuevo mundo. Queridos jóvenes amigos, Jesucristo cuenta con ustedes. La Iglesia cuenta con ustedes. El Papa cuenta con ustedes!” ¡Aquí no hay paro!
