Modus Vivendi

a manner of living...a way of life

When I was a child, I used to speak like a child, think like a child, reason like a child; when I became a MAN, I did away with childish things. (1 Corinthians 13:11)

Modus Vivendi translates into a manner of living, a way of life - but what kind of life are you living? How is your faith journey? Are you taking care of your health - physically, mentally, and spiritually? How are things at home, in your marriage, and with your family? If you're like most men, you may feel pulled in many directions - overwhelmed by responsibilities, facing uncertainty, or struggling to stay connected in faith. But as men of faith, we are called to something greater. It's time to place FAITH OVER FEAR, refocus on what truly matters, and strengthen our role as husbands, fathers, and men of faith.

Join us as we get back to the basics and explore what it truly means to be a man - not just in today's world and culture, but in God's eyes.

Program Details:

- 12-week series beginning February 17, 2025
- Monday nights at 7:30 PM in St. Louis Catholic Church - Assembly Hall
- Alternative Small Group option: Wednesdays at lunchtime

While this program is geared toward married men, all men—whether single, separated, or divorced - are welcome. We offer groups suited to different life stages, ensuring that everyone can connect and grow. No matter where you are on your journey, we believe the insights and discussions will be invaluable to you.

There's no prerequisite - just a willingness to commit and challenge yourself. We ask for a $25 donation to cover material costs. The setting is casual, practical, and rooted in faith—not preachy, but real. Space is limited, so reserve your spot today!
